HONGKONG, TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1880 In our remarks of yesterday we endeavoured to show the inevitable tendence of the Governors line of action with regard to the establishment of the new post of Chinese Secretary, and the manner in which that desire if attained would affect the Colonial Secretary. is now pretty generally anderstood the Colonial Office authorities do not a this question in the same light as d His Excellency. Apart from the depart mental reasons already given, the important point to be considered by the Score tary of State is what permanent benefit is likely to be derived from this new office! In the event of Sir John Hempery being promoted to shother Culony and his strongly marked Chinese modifyides going with him, what would then be the specific duties of the Chinese Sevetary! The Colonial Office muse look at somethis principalities the solowy bearing OCOLO SOLAS SERVICIO SOLO CONTRACTOR DE CONT mente we like semintan thin Siloposius for instance that the tenteries position Colony desired is send hack all Chinese Colony desired to the long ment to be dealy near made aware of the tarn the cloc-

suggested in this connection, however, it is surprising how little we have heard of the awaved original object of it all. Daylight - Bruemor Carlle leaves for We mean the manguration of an Interpreter-General's Department. The need of a thoroughly competent and experienced scholar of ability, well versed in at least two or three dialects of Chinese, wat felt for this great work of reform and a gentleman answering all these requirements was secured by the local Government. That officer's ospecity and itness for this duty has been frequently ested in many ways, while the absolute necessity of some high-class and honest supervision or check of the interpretorial departments of the service was recognised on every hand. It is true that since the engagement of Mr Ball as interpreter in the Supreme Court, the smoothness with which that particular branch of interpretation has been carried on is most satisfactory. But the staff is necessarily a large one, and this redseming feature only serves the better to show the darkness of its sur roundings. Mr Ball would make a most valuable assistant to the Interpreter General : but there can be no manner of doubt that the proper sphire for Dr. Ritel is that of head of the Interpreting Department, a position which has been again and again foreshadowed but which now seems to be more distant than ever from practical shape. It may be remembered that the reason why Dr. Eitel's temporary appointment at Government Translator was so favourably received by the Legislative Council and the community was because of the hope held out that his acknowledged abilities would be utilised in the manner we have stated. We do not for a moment doubt but that the intelligent assistance of a shrewd scholarly man like the sinologist referred to must be of no small importance in whatever capacity it may be rendered. But there can be no question as to the greater service he would render to the interests of this Government if his energies were turned in the direction indicated-viz, that of reorganizing and supervising the entire interpretation staff of the Colony. It may be assumed, and we believe we are right in assuming, that 8 p.m.—Occidental & Oriental S. S. Co.'s | the ruling spirite of the Columbal Office Steamer Belgie leaves for Yokohame look with favour upon the formation of this Department, Indeed, it is just possible that had not the idea of joining with it the other position of Chinese Secretary been persistently advanced by the Governor, the suggestion would have been carried out long ere now. The rearrangement of the Registrar General's Office may have retarded the development of this most destrable administrative reform; and it is to be hoped that so soon as the new Liberal Cabinet has fairly soltled down to work, the details of the suggested changes are laid before Lord Kimberley, and the facts are fully explained, in writing by the Governor and verbally by Mr. Marsh, the Interpreter General's Office will speedily become a permanent and independent department, under the guidance of the present able setting Chinese

The legality or otherwise of the U.S. Consul's action rests entirely upon the question whether of not is absolutely resigned his official position prior to his execution of the contract in London. This is so from the very nature of things, because. whatever arrangement may have praviously been made by Consuls of other Foreign Powers at Canton, it was a manifest impossibility for the U.S. State Department to ratify or approve of a contract made in direct violation of a Statute of the United States. The acceptance by the Department of Mr. Lincoln's resignation and his resumption. of office are not fully reconciled by our correspondent's letter. If the Consul resigned in order to carry out the contract, why was he permitted by Secretary Everts to resume his position? If, on the other hands Mr. Lincoln resigned from reasons of a political character having reference to Ceneral Grants election. Mr. Lincoln's return to China is still more incomprehensible, as the assistance he could render in Canton to the gallant. Presidential candidate is infinitesimally small. If, again, Mr. incom a resignation was accepted . for ressons of a general character which were actuating similar changes of somewhat extended scope in China, Japan, Ac. then we are very much afraid that our correspondents defence Mr. Lincoln in not even so strong as might have been made. Most of the ecent changes have clearly been necessitated by the force of the public demand for Civil Service Reform.

THE OHINA REVIEW.

1)HE widely-expressed regret at the dis-continuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly tables and other intelligence as is conmodified in certain details THE CRIMA REVIEW, or Notes and sons passing through the City, and Queries on the Fan East, is issued at in- in connection with we have opened tervals of two months, each number conillustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, do., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far Kast" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Por- Government Offices, the Secretariat, &c., tuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resume in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified togeor Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries propor as brief and as much to the point as possible. The China Review for July and Angust, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a Etate. All our learned societies should subscribe to this acholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what schoars are ascertaining about Ohina. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Ad-

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This is the title of a publication; the first number of which has lately reached us from Hong. KEE, Lessees. kong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which usoful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. Thepresent publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review, The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of pubticity as is now provided extremely desirable ; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Uhinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of conour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in con-nexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of atyle; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary seal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predemay receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intendorm a substantial octavo magazine.

This paper is how issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per amum delivered in Hong. kong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents in cluding postage to Coast ports, It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing. The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, — consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to adver-tisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail the medical progressive and anti-obstructive in tonein almost limition. It on the one hand while on the other deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners.
